JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
American Newspaper Publishers Association
Washington, D.C.
22 September 1987

Executive Vice President of the American Newspaper Publishers Association (ANPA), Jerry W. Friedheim, on behalf of the ANPA Government Affairs Committee, has invited you to speak at their semiannual dinner on September 22nd at either the National Press Club or the International Club. Your remarks may be on any topic of your choice. Since the Committee is interested in maintaining good communications between the press and governmental institutions, your views of the relationship between the Agency and the press would be of particular interest. The suggested format is 15 - 20 minutes of after dinner remarks followed by a 15 - 20 minute question and answer period with the committee members. You could expect an audience of approximately 60 people including ANPA officers, committee members, guests and staff. Adjournment is at 10:00 p.m.

Previous speakers have included Canadian Ambassador Allan Gotlieb, Mrs. Katharine Graham, and The Honorable Richard Gephardt. As you no doubt remember, you spoke to this group in 1980. (See opposite for list of previous speakers and members of the Committee.)

Since the 22nd of September will be the first day that you are back from your overseas trip and also, Mrs. Meese has invited you to a ball that evening, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regret to Mr. Friedheim for your signature.

Dear Mr. Friedheim:

Thank you for your kind invitation to address the ANPA Government Affairs Committee dinner on Tuesday, September 22nd, in Washington, D.C. This is certainly a significant meeting, and a repeat invitation to speak to your group is indeed an honor. Unfortunately, due to a conflict in my schedule, I am unable to participate.

Please express my good wishes to all your members.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Judge Webster:

The ANPA Government Affairs Committee has asked me to invite you to be the committee's special guest and speaker at its dinner the evening of September 22 in Washington.

ANPA seeks to contribute to a continuing dialogue between the press and the government on issues and practices of mutual interest. You spoke to this group in 1980 as FBI director and you may recall the constructive atmosphere we attempt to build with these sessions.

As you know, the American Newspaper Publishers Association is a non-profit trade association representing nearly 1,400 member newspapers throughout North America. Membership accounts for more than 90 percent of U.S. daily and Sunday newspaper circulation. Many non-daily newspapers also are members.

Our Government Affairs Committee meets twice annually in Washington to consider governmental matters affecting newspapers and to advise the ANPA Board of Directors on association policy in the government relations area. Several committee members are current or past ANPA directors. The committee is representative of the newspaper business, including executives from all regions of the country and from newspapers large and small. Charles S. Rowe of the Fredericksburg Free Lance-Star is chairman of the committee and serves on ANPA's Board. Ray Shaw, president of Dow Jones & Co., is vice chairman. Enclosed is a committee roster, together with a list of speakers who have addressed this committee in recent years.

Our dinner reception will begin at 7 p.m. with dinner service at 7:30 p.m. Usually we meet at the National Press Club or the International Club. We would like you to join the committee during the reception and deliver remarks of perhaps 15 or 20 minutes following dinner, leaving the bulk of our time together for discussions with the committee.

members. We expect about 60 persons, including ANPA officers, committee members, guests and staff. We will conclude about 10 p.m. We do not make public announcement of our committee sessions.

Your staff may contact ANPA Manager/Government and International Affairs Martin Casey (648-1054), who provides staff support for the committee, or of course you may call me directly with your response or questions.

We look forward to your positive reply, and to an enjoyable and stimulating evening together.

Sincerely,

Jerry W. Friedheim
Executive Vice President
